By the time you read this the good news will be all the political ads will be gone for a couple of years. One Hawkeye friend of mine said he'd rather watch 10 Ernst-Greenfield commercials than his Hawkeyes! Now that is BAD! At least we had a positive week on the board. It is still so disheartening to see cut-outs at levels that easily support $120-$125 Fed cattle and we are struggling to get $105.

The repeal of mandatory country of origin labeling is still a big bur in my side. I've asked the check off people about it and they say that's not under their jurisdiction. I ask politicians about it and they say the National Cattleman's Beef Association doesn't want it. I asked NCBA about it and they tell me I just don't understand the issue! Well this is how I see it. The NCBA contracts & receives close to 85% of the Check off money. That's near $40 million. In turn NCBA uses that money literally against us. It's come time for serious change. If you want a vote on the beef check off, google beef check off referendum.
